HIAWATHA LAST NIGHT

Kamehameha School
Enacts the Poem.

An audience of several hundred people sat in a semi-circle last evening in the Kamehameha Girls' school grounds and viewed an open air pantomime performance of Hiawatha. The entertainment was one of the most unique, artistic and picturesque al fresco affairs ever seen here. There was realistic acting on the part of the large number of young Hawaiian students of the school in their portrayal of the beautiful characters of Longfellow's great masterpiece.

Out under the starry sky in a clearing fringed with algaroba trees, palms and dense shrubbery, was pitched an Indian wigwam, swathed with blankets and deer skins. Nearby was a fire built under a cairn of stones. On poles raised on upright sticks skins, meats and fruits were hung to dry. It was a typical Indian camp and showed artistic arrangement and an effort to give a true picture of aboriginal village life. At times red fire was added to the embers of the camp-fire, producing a lurid glow.

The program opened with the singing of "The Chinese" by a quartet of young Hawaiian girls dressed as Indian maidens. Then the poem was opened:

"Listen to this Indian Legend,
To this song of Hiawatha."

the poem being read in sections by young ladies succeeding each other as follows: Daisy Sheldon, Nora Kahaleole, Nani Haia, Katy Sadler and Miss Aholo.

There were many pretty tableaux. The gathering of the warriors and squaws before the tent of Nokomis, where the child Hiawatha was brought out into the open, and shown the wonders of nature, was one. All was done in pantomime as the reading progressed. The young girls proved themselves capable actresses, going through the work in a most natural manner, and reflecting much credit upon the teachers who aided in the presentation of Hiawatha.

The scene between Hiawatha and Nokomis, as the former made known his love for the beautiful Minnehaha, his going away to visit the tribe where dwelt the Laughing-Water, his reception by the old arrow-maker and the return to Hiawatha's tribe, followed by the joy of his people, and then

"Sumptuous was the feast Nokomis Made at Hiawatha's Wedding."

The ensemble was beautiful indeed. The Indian costumes, richly trimmed, with glittering amulets adorning arms, and anklets which clanked and rattled, helmets of feathers, bows and arrows—and with pretty girls to play the parts, the production was a feast for the eyes.

There were many songs interspersing the reading of the poem, the solo parts being given by Miss Zelle Lima, a charming little maid with a beautiful voice, and Miss Annie Brown, equally charming. The dramatis personae was as follows:

the toboggan. The successful men were said by one of the watchers there last evening to be probably for Crabbe. There were several tickets in the field, and the combination resulted in the election of the following candidates: C. Hustace, Jr., T. H. Petrie, F. B. Damon, Chas. Crozier, C. W. Ziegler, C. L. Beale, 56; C. A. Long, 58; J. A. Johnson, 55; J. Lucas, 54; W. H. Thompson, 12; L. Schweitzer, 17; F. E. Thompson, 31; C. H. W. Norton, 9; H. C. Pfeuger, 24; E. J. Lord, 18; T. J. King, 27; W. J. Karratti, 10; Edwin Hughes, 20; A. T. Brock, 20; C. B. Ballentyne, 31.

FOURTH DISTRICT—NINTH PRECINCT.

The administration ticket was elected in the Ninth precinct, 159 ballots being cast, two spoiled and five rejected. Seven delegates were elected as follows: Geo. Kawai, 141; J. Kealoha, 132; Dick Paneawa, 120; J. C. Quinn, 118; Geo. Smithies, 111; H. E. Lockwood, 110; H. Newland, 106. The remainder of the balloting was as follows: H. C. Birbe, Jr., 14; H. Ka-ne, 41; M. Kealakal, 46; D. Koo, 27; C. Lake, 50; J. Nai, 31.

FOURTH DISTRICT—TENTH PRECINCT.

There was considerable sparring in the Tenth precinct. The voting took place at the old tramway stables. There were two tickets in the field, and the Brown card claimed half of the delegates elected. The Crabbe faction says it has five out of the eight. The successful candidates are: W. W. Harris, 107; Kallimapehu, 86; Louis Marks, 83; J. M. Cathcart, 72; Chas. Girdler, 66; Geo. Makalena, 79; Jack Kuamoo, 54; Wm. Noa, 52. The remainder of the voting was as follows: Henry Davis, 11; A. A. Montano, 13; C. F. Clemons, 13; S. F. Chillingworth, 30; E. Buffandeau, 44; P. W. Burt, 4; H. Johnson, 18; Kamoa, 49; Keama, 49; Kaitihini, 12; Keakio, 13; Paaluh, 15; Moepono, 25; Ed. Towse, 41; W. C. Weedon, 13; J. R. Silva, 15; Manuel Rosa, 17.

IN THE FIFTH DISTRICT

The Fifth District primaries were signalized by the defeat of the Boy Orator and his anti-haole ticket in Geo. Carter's precinct, and the usual relegating of McCants Stewart to the scrap pile.

FIFTH DISTRICT—THIRD PRECINCT.

The returns from Waiwala last night gave the following delegates: Andrew Cox, Oscar Cox, W. W. Goodale, Edward Hore, H. H. Plemmer, Lowell Kinney.

FIFTH DISTRICT—WAIANAE.

The returns from Waianae, Chris. Holt's stronghold, all the delegates favoring Brown, gave the following tickets: C. J. Holt, 71; S. Myer, 63; N. K. Leleo, 54.

FIFTH DISTRICT—SEVENTH PRECINCT.

In the old Fighting Seventh of the Fifth there was a quiet election. The Crabbe faction claims the victory, however, with the exception of one delegate, not named. The delegates are: Joe Fern, S. Mahelona, H. Alapai, S. K. Paula, J. M. Keawe, D. Kahananui.

FIFTH DISTRICT—EIGHTH PRECINCT.

In the Eighth precinct the Crabbe men claim six delegates, leaving the Brown men, two. The total votes cast were 127, with four cancelled. The delegates are: A. S. Kaleopu, 90; D. Kama, 80; Lot K. C. Lane, 76; N. Fernandez, 74; S. C. Dwight, 64; J. K. Manunakea, 54; S. M. Pulehu, 59; J. Kaponu, 52. The remainder of the balloting resulted as follows: N. Kauhane, 38; J. Kawehi, 31; Harry Kabele, 28; Hoopili, 18; J. L. Aholo, 44; S. K. Kanalu, 46; Wm. Laa, 22; Naki, 46; Henry Napua, 26; Wm. Olepau, 41.

FIFTH DISTRICT—NINTH PRECINCT.

The Ninth precinct seems to be divided on the choice for Sheriff, according to the slates. The delegates elected are: J. S. Kalakela, 146; Kekumano, 121; M. C. Amama, 117; E. R. Adams, 116; A. F. Judd, 115; A. St. C. Piansia, 114; Wm. Paikule, 113; Edgar Henriquez, 104; F. P. T. Waterhouse, 100. The remaining votes were cast as follows: B. H. Kelekolio, 90; J. E. Shaw, 99; L. K. Kane, 97; John Edwards, 89; K. H. Meek, 99; Nika, 71; S. Kama, 84.

In this precinct Bernard Kelekolio, the "Boy Orator" met his Waterloo. Kelekolio had entered the field with an anti-haole ticket and got stepped on.

FIFTH DISTRICT—TENTH PRECINCT.

In the Tenth precinct there was some lively voting. The result is uncertain as to how the delegates stand on Sheriff. The delegates elected are: Chas. Broad, 141; Wm. Isaac, 141; Robt. Holbrook, 132; Wm. H. Crawford, 130; C. H. Clark, 127; Joe Ricard, 115; Charles Kanekoa, 109; Eddie Kealoha, 99; Kapepuu, 98. The rest of the voting was as follows: A. D. Bolster, 90; Chas. Au, 36; Kaanaana, 32; Kaka, 14; Moses Kamakoa, 15; J. K. Kekaula, 92; Keola, 39; Wm. Y. Kwai Fong, 70; G. B. Mahelona, 95; Malina, 51; S. K. Maloi, 77; Chas. Opunui, 88; Pookalani, 32; Wm. Reuter, 76.

FIFTH DISTRICT—ELEVENTH PRECINCT.

The Eleventh precinct chose Jim Kupieha, H. Huka, Maluanui, Mahelona, Ben Zablan. This is said to be a Crabbe delegation with two exceptions.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES FOR ELECTION TO COUNTY OFFICES.

Notice is hereby given that, where-as it is required by law that candidates for election to county offices, on the Island of Oahu, shall deposit their nominations with the Secretary of the Territory not less than ten days before the day of a special election, it shall be necessary that such nominations be filed in this office not later than five o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, June 10, 1905.

In order to be eligible to fill any elective office created by the provisions of Act 29 of the Session Laws of 1905, a candidate shall be a citizen of the United States of America, and of the Territory of Hawaii; he shall have been a duly qualified elector of said Territory and of the county in which he shall be elected for at least one year next prior to his election; in addition thereto all members of the Board of Supervisors shall continue to reside within the district from which they may be elected during the period of their incumbency; and in addition to the foregoing qualifications, any person who shall be elected County Attorney must be a duly licensed attorney admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii and he must further have practiced law in the county, in which he shall be a candidate, for at least one year.

Within the County of Oahu seven members of the Board of Supervisors are to be elected, as follows:

Three from the District of Honolulu;
One from the District of Ewa;
One from the Districts of Waianae and Waiwala;
One from the Districts of Koolauloa and Koolauapo; and One at large.

Other officers to be elected for the County of Oahu, by the duly qualified electors of said county, are:

A Sheriff who shall be ex-officio Coroner, a County Clerk who shall be ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, an Auditor, a County Attorney, and a Treasurer.

Within each and every one of the districts of Honolulu, Ewa, Waianae, Waiwala, Koolauloa, and Koolauapo, in the County of Oahu, there shall also be elected by the qualified electors thereof one Deputy Sheriff.

Each nomination must be accompanied by a deposit of Twenty-Five ($25.00) Dollars and be signed by not less than twenty-five duly qualified electors of the Representative District in which the election is ordered, and in which the nominee is requested to be a candidate.

Should any candidate desire that his name be printed on the ballot in the Hawaiian as well as in the English language, he must make a special request to that effect at the time of filing his nomination paper.

quest to that effect at the time of filing his nomination paper.
